If you are applying for Japanese (5-credit), Kanji and Reading (3-credit), Business Japanese (3-credit) and Translation (English into Japanese/3-credit) course, you are asked to complete a simple Japanese Language Background Survey for us to determine your level of studies. Additionally, if you are qualified to take level 5 or above, a placement test on Zoom for about 20 minutes will be scheduled in the end of December. Details will be sent to you by e-mail after the application/registration period.

Intercultural Engagement Program:

We are offering the above online courses, at a minimal cost, as part of our effort to promote international cooperation with our partner schools and their students. Given this, students who take advantage of our online courses are expected to participate in one of the following activities for at least once a month.

Examples of activities

Mexican culture event

Language Lesson

Cultural Food Sharing

SDGs Discussion

Country Quiz

Online blog

Chinese Talk Cafe

Digital Fashion Show

Frequently Asked Questions (ASP Home-Based for Spring 2022 Semester)

1. Is the application process the same as the regular on-site program?
No. After being nominated, students will be asked to provide us with necessary information including course selection online.
2. Will academic credits and grades be given upon successful completion of the program?
Yes. The contents of the online courses are basically the same as the ones offered in a face-to-face format, and an official transcript with credits and grades will be issued after the semester is completed. There will be no indication of online course on the transcript.
3. Will it be counted toward our exchange credit/balance?
No. Your enrollment in the online courses will not be counted as part of regular exchange balance credits.
4. Is there a minimum GPA to apply for the Online Courses?
No. Students can be accommodated as long as they are nominated by their home institutions. However, once students are nominated, they must be committed to complete their courses.
5. Is there any difference in fees between taking one course and two courses?
No. Registration Fee is charged per person, not by the number of courses.
6. How do I pay the Registration Fee?
Please pay by credit card (VISA or Master card) during the payment period.
7. Can my University make the payments on behalf of the students?
Yes. Please contact us if the University would like to make the payment. Payment by credit card or bank wire transfer will also be accepted.
8. Can I receive a refund if I withdraw during the semester?
No. The Registration Fee is non-refundable.
9. Is taking a Japanese Language course mandatory?
No. It is not mandatory to take a Japanese Language course.
10. What is the difference between “Japanese” and “Kanji and Readings”?
Please refer to the Japanese Language Courses:
<https://www.kansai-gaidai.ac.jp/asp/academics/course-offerings/japanese/>
11. When do I know which level I will be placed in for Japanese Language courses and course assignment?
Your course notification including the level for Japanese Language courses will be available on January 11, 2022.
12. Can I take more than two courses?
No. Two courses are the maximum number you can take. However, if you would like to take full-time load (Minimum 14 credits and Maximum 20 credits), please contact us directly and we will consider your request individually.
13. What is the proportion between synchronous and asynchronous?
Each instructor will arrange his or her courses, to best fit the course objectives. However, for content courses, the recommended ratio between synchronous and asynchronous is 50% and 50%. For Japanese courses the recommendation is at least 60% synchronous and 40% asynchronous.
14. If I miss any synchronous classes, is there any way that I can catch up? Can I record the class?
We will ask all professors to record their synchronous classes for playback by students. Students may also record lectures on their own with consent from professors.
15. Are there any local students taking the courses together with international students?
Yes, in the content courses, local students who are scheduled to study abroad will be taking courses with you.
16. Is there an Add & Drop period?
Drop is available until February 7, 2022. Adding a course is not possible. However, regarding “Japanese” and “Kanji and Readings”, level adjustments may occur.
